

Get AMPD! Training

Set a standard of excellence with the Agile-Based Methodology for Proposal Development (AMPD!)® in developing proposals.

We teach businesses about the art of planning and managing the activities associated with developing proposals in response to opportunities using our streamlined approach to proposal development - AMPD! Based on 25+ years of experience, AMPD! is the culmination of the lessons learned from the challenges and successes of proposal management and development efforts. Understanding how to efficiently respond to RFPs, RFQs, and RFIs is key for Federal Contractors.

Want to grow your business? This course provides an overview of AMPD! and how to implement this methodology to effectively and efficiently respond to Federal Government opportunities.
